

Robert Osborne-Defensive Tackle & Full Back

Germantown, Maryland

Height: 6'1"; Weight: 275lbs; 40 Yard: 4.9s; Vertical: 29 inches; 20 Yard Shuttle: 4.57s.

- Education: Towson University; B.A. Sociology/ Anthropology
- Experience:

2010 SEASON:

Robert played in 11 games as a reserve, made 15 tackles and forced a fumble, 3 tackles against Massachusetts, 3 at Richmond, and a tackle, which forced a fumble at Villanova. He had 2 tackles at Delaware, and made pair of tackles against Maine.

2009 SEASON:

Appeared in nine games and started once. He had 11 tackles and recovered a fumble. He made lone start of season in place of injured Yaky Ibia at Rhode Island, and helped Tigers to a 36-28 win at Rhode Island by recovering a fumble that set up a touchdown, which gave the Tigers a 13-0 lead early in the game. He made seasonal high four tackles against #6 New Hampshire; had two tackles against Delaware, and made two tackles against #1 Richmond.

2008 SEASON:

Robert appeared in 9 games and started 7 times and made 38 tackles, ninth on the team, and had three tackles for lost yardage. He tied for team lead with 2.5 quarterback sacks. He had a fumble recovery, and made debut at Coastal Carolina and having 4 tackles. Brandon made first start of career against Northeastern, made 6 tackles against the Huskies, and had 4-yard sack against Northeastern, which led the Tigers to win over Rhode Island with 5 tackles, including a sack. Robert had 3 tackles and recovered fumble at New Hampshire, and made a career high 8 tackles against #16 William & Mary. He made 4 tackles at Delaware, and made 4 tackles that blocked extra point in Tigers' upset bid at Villanova. He had 3 tackles in finale against James Madison, and helped Tiger offense as extra blocking back in short-yardage situations.

AT CLARKSBURG H.S.:

Robert was a highly talented defensive lineman who earned first team All-State honors as a senior; two-way starter on defensive line and fullback – an opportunity which led to a very young Coyote program to a 12-1 record, and a berth in the state semi-finals in just the program's second year of existence. He made 86 tackles with five quarterback sacks as a senior for Coach Larry Hurd, and named first team All-Montgomery County & All-League. He also played fullback and ran for 726 yards, and scored 15 touchdowns in 2007.

