LA Goree was a starting freshman for the now Big 10 Terps who played in all 12 games out of the gate and over the next four years developed into a leader on the defense of the Maryland Terps playing a total 42 games. LA turned out to be a highly skilled, physical player who has a nose for the ball. LA is a ball hunter, he thrived in the middle of the field in Brian Stewart's 3-4 defense stopping the run and even in pass defense. LA completed his Maryland Terp career with 279 tackles. LA earned the high marks of ACC Linebacker of the week, a well productive player overall according to many scouting reports who is now available as a free agent as a true diamond in the rough.
