Robert Johnson was a veteran wide receiver who also played a significant role on special teams for the Bulldogs. Johnson saw playing time in 46 games with 27 starts and caught 69 passes for 822 yards with three touchdowns. A huge vertical threat throughout his career with great size and speed. This leader on and off the field has the ability to get up field in a hurry. Johnson's ability to run quick and effective routes allows him to create yards of separation from his defender. With four years of SEC starting experience, Johnson has proved his skill set is NFL caliber and he can be successful at the next level. Johnson was selected to play in the MLFB for the Spring of 2016.
