Sam Eickhoff was a powerful fullback and leader of the Ichabods for 4 straight seasons. Sam played in 39 games, starting 26 of them. This former lineman transformed into a fullback has the size and speed to open holes for his running back. If Washburn needed a short yardage first down, Sam was always in the game. Sam can use his strength and size to break through a strong defensive formation. Sam can use his toughness and versatility to protect his quarterback as well as catching passes in the flat. Not only is Sam extremely intelligent on the field but has been highly successful in the classroom. He is a 5 time member of the MIAA Academic Honor Roll. Sam had two catches for 17 yards and was a huge blocker for all running backs. Was named Ichabod special team's player of the week after the Central Missouri game. Again a member of the MIAA Academic Honor Roll.
